Resting on the edge of the San Francisco Bay, the Baylands Golf Club is sanctuary for both golfers and wildlife. An original design of William P. "Billy" Bell and his son, William F. Bell, the par 72, 6,800 yard layout is now updated and restored — once again embracing the landscape of a windswept coastline, nearby tidal marshes, and San Francisquito Creek.

Often described as sporting the most spectacular views in all of Bay Area golf, our Robert Hunter and Willie Watson designed layout will be restored to its 1920s glory in time for the 2012 season.

Call us at (510) 233-7550 for information on golf events, banquets and membership.

Golf course architect Robert Hunter created only one solo design in his renowned career — it was Mira Vista.
